Messages & Compliments

Dear parents,
Education emerges where everything else fails. It is priceless gift of wisdom, this art of instruction is extremely subtle and dedicated but a good school practices it harmoniously and blends formal with informal.

We proudly affirm our commitment on the quality over quantity and hopefully try our best to nurture pupil's mind in the shade of RPS.

With warm regards,
Ajay Choudhary
Chairman

RPS is having plethora of social, cultural and co-curricular activities. It provides a dynamic secular platform across the length and breadth of society. Co-curricular activities answer the harmonious growth of children and it helps in streamlining the talents of the child, improves analytical thrust, values, orientation and various other factors of life.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Jyoti Singh
